TESTIMONIALS

I am pleased to report that the support and commitment by team Promotech to the various requirements and the development of the ICT landscape at the QEH has been nothing short of excellent. The consultations on the most appropriate and current technological solution that meets our requirements have been well documented over the years which has led to such a sound partnership.

Coming from such a strong foundation laid by senior management, it was my personal delight to be accorded the privilege to work with our new designated Account manager, who clearly demonstrated a passion for excellent service. During this very difficult period as a nation, trying to procure critical devices during the pandemic, Promotech demonstrated what it meant to be a strategic partner and even beyond the normal working hours was able to procure and provide access to critical devices. The passion demonstrated by our account manager and understanding of the need for continuing the delivery of care to our patients, along with being proactive and researching products deemed appropriate for some clinical areas was also noteworthy.

I applaud her and the entire team for their guidance and look forward to continuation of the partnership.

Over the past 7 years I have worked closely with Promotech and have never been disappointed with the quality or range of products offered. Promotech is much more than a computer store. Across our group of companies, they have assisted at every phase of our ICT environment. From structured cabling to security or managed servers the Promotech team has been there. I will also commend them on their customer service namely the Warrens team and Account Manager Adrian Boyce. They're always available to ensure our requirements are met and satisfaction guaranteed. I confidently recommend Promotech Stores to anyone.

I just had to commend Promotech on the service I received in replacing my Bloomberg keyboard. I could not believe that it took less than 5 minutes from submitting the replacement request on the Bloomberg terminal to getting a call from Jason (technician) to organize drop off. Exceptional service, you should be very proud.
